Student & Foundation Networks

As well as being a valuable addition to your CV, affiliating to the Student or Foundation Doctors' Network also gives you access to the following benefits:

- Discounted fees on relevant courses and events
- Online discounts for medical publishers including Oxford University Press, Wiley-Blackwell and Elsevier
- Exclusive discounts with STA travel; great for your elective or holiday travel
- Personal library services using our well-resourced medical and surgical library, with the latest in texts, journals and electronic resources
- Certificate of Affiliation for your portfolio
- College email address and mailbox, online access to personal profile page and easy access to booking courses online on our new-look website, going live in early 2011
- Quarterly copies of the College's award winning publication Surgeons' News to which you can contribute
- Regular newsletters
- Access to bursaries and grants
- Access to networking events with College Office Bearers and senior surgeons in your area
- Discount at TM Lewin (shirt maker)

You can join the Student Affiliate Network for just £15 a year. When you embark on foundation training you can join the Foundation Affiliate Network for just £25 a year.

Pre-MRCS Affiliation

We understand that as you embark on your specialty training you still need to be supported by the College, especially in the lead up to your MRCS examinations. The pre-MRCS Affiliate Network will provide you with the professional support that you need during this critical time. We also realise that it is important to maintain a healthy work-life balance and so in addition to the professional benefits that you will receive as a Foundation Affiliate (see adjacent list), such as discounts on courses and books, we also offer you the following benefits as a Pre-MRCS Affiliate:

- Discounted accommodation at the College's Ten Hill Place Hotel
- Discounts when you book a holiday in Scotland through Unique Cottages, including discounted car hire and a wine voucher
- Preferential rates at Prestonfield Golf Club, Edinburgh
- Discounted day pass at Vital Health and Wellbeing Club in Edinburgh

Pre-MRCS Affiliation costs just £50 per year!
